

Can I have just my ceremony at Oceanaire Resort Hotel?

We require that both the ceremony and reception or the reception only be held here.

Are there times when the price of the wedding is discounted?

Non-Saturday weddings (excluding holiday weekends) are discounted. Ask your Wedding Specialist for details.

Do you have onsite wedding planners and coordinators or can we bring in our own?

The Event Specialist provided by Oceanaire Resort Hotel is responsible for communicating the details of your Special Day. However, we suggest securing a Wedding Coordinator to assist with the many other facets of planning your event.

If I am out of state and worried about planning, are you able to help me?

Absolutely! Our Event Specialists are available to answer questions through email, phone conversations, and mail to make sure that all the details are covered.

What is the schedule of payments?

The initial deposit of $1,000 is due with your signed contract, the next payment of 50% is due 60-days prior to the event. The final payment is due along with the final guaranteed number of guests, 14 days prior to your event date.

What types of payments do you take?

We accept cash, personal check, most major credit cards, money orders and certified checks for your wedding. The final payment cannot be made with a personal check.

Is my $1,000 deposit an additional fee?

No, your deposit is credited towards your total wedding bill. It is not an additional fee. However, in the case of cancellation it is non-refundable.

What is the Food and Beverage minimum cost?

Every reception location has a food and beverage minimum. The price varies per location and day of the week. A food and beverage minimum is met through only food and beverage sales prior to taxes and taxable service charge. The price of the menu you select times the number of guests must meet or exceed the minimum for your reception location before taxable service charge and tax are added on.

When would be a good time to have our food tasting?

Food tastings are exclusively for weddings with sit down dinner menus and are complimentary for two (2) people for weddings with 50-75 guests, and four (4) people for weddings with 75+ guests. Food tastings may be scheduled Tuesdays- Fridays from 1:00pm – 3:00pm, upon availability. The food tasting should be scheduled 1 - 2 months before the wedding. Food tastings must be scheduled and confirmed with your catering manager at least two (2) weeks prior to the date requested.
